At Kind Souls Foundation, we believe in transparency, trust, and responsible stewardship of the resources entrusted to us. This Financial & Tax Disclosure outlines key information regarding our nonprofit status, donation deductibility, and our commitment to financial accountability.

501(c)(3) Tax-Exempt Status

Kind Souls Foundation is a registered 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization recognized by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). Contributions are tax-deductible to the fullest extent permitted by law. No goods or services are provided in exchange for contributions unless otherwise stated.

Federal Tax Identification Number (EIN): 87-1674866

Donation Receipts & Acknowledgments

Donors will receive a written acknowledgment for each contribution. For recurring donations, annual giving summaries may be provided upon request. Receipts will include:

- Name of donor
- Date of contribution
- Amount of donation
- Statement regarding tax-deductibility

Use of Donated Funds

All donations are used to support the mission, programs, and operational needs of Kind Souls Foundation. We prioritize responsible financial practices and strive to ensure that all funds are used efficiently and ethically to support individuals and families navigating medical job displacement.

Annual Reporting & Financial Transparency

Kind Souls Foundation is committed to transparency and will make available:

- Annual financial summaries
- IRS Form 990 filings
- Programmatic impact reports
- Documentation upon request from funders, donors, or oversight bodies

Our financial reports and impact updates may be shared via our website or by request at admin@kindsoulsfoundation.org.

Allocation of Funds

Unless otherwise designated by the donor, contributions will be directed toward our general fund to support core programming, operational expenses, volunteer training, and outreach efforts.

Restricted donations will be honored and used exclusively for the intended purpose whenever feasible. If circumstances prevent the use of restricted donations as designated, funds may be redirected to similar programmatic areas aligned with the donor's intent, with transparency and documentation provided.

Donor Privacy Assurance

We value and respect donor confidentiality. Donor information is safeguarded in accordance with our Privacy Policy and is not shared with outside organizations or vendors for marketing purposes.

Public Disclosure Compliance

Kind Souls Foundation complies with IRS and New York State charitable solicitation and financial reporting laws. Copies of our IRS determination letter and recent tax filings are available upon request.

Updates & Revisions

This Financial & Tax Disclosure may be updated periodically to reflect changes in regulatory requirements or internal policy. The most current version will always be available on our website.

Questions or Requests?

Please contact us if you require additional financial documentation, have questions about our financial practices, or need a duplicate donation receipt.
